Lucy and her father often go to the park together early in the morning. They're both going to be in a long (1) this summer so they try to run five kilometres. Lucy sometimes skips part of the way. She's excellent at it. She can skip faster than anyone else in her class. But last Monday, a dog (2)..... ran past Lucy and her dad when they were on the path that goes round the lake and Lucy's dad (3) into the water! He was really wet and very cold and had to hurry home, dry himself, find a (4) to put round his shoulders and sit down on the sofa.

“We can't run tomorrow, Lucy”, he said. Lucy felt unhappy when he said that because she loved running with her dad. Lucy's dad could see that Lucy was feeling sad. “Don't (5).....! It will only be for one day!” he laughed. “We can go again on Wednesday morning!”

Lucy felt much better after that!

Now choose the best name for the story. Choose A or B or C

- A. Be careful Dad !
- B. The skipping prize!
- C. Lucy's terrible cold !

HARRY AND THE DIFFICULT QUESTIONS

Harry Doors loved learning. He had hundreds of books in his room at home and like using his computer to find out about jungles, clouds, kangaroos or anything else that he found interesting.

One day Harry's teacher said, "Would you like to be on a TV programme, Harry? It's a competition on Channel 7 for the cleverest children in the country. You'll have to answer several difficult questions!" Harry said, "Yes! Of course!"

The next day, a man called Mr. Silver came to Harry's school to give him some advice and important information about the competition. "Before we can film you, Harry", he said, "I have three questions. Ready?" "Yes, Harry whispered. He was suddenly feeling a bit frightened! Good! Where's the River Thames?" "In London, " Harry said quietly. "Well done! What's 27 times 5?" "135!" Harry answered quickly.

"Great! Which is the highest mountain in the world?" "Mount Everest and it's 8,848 metres high!" Harry answered with a big smile on his face. He knew that all his answers were right. "Excellent!" the man said. "You're clever enough for the competition. Next Tuesday a taxi will bring you and your parents to Television House at six o'clock! Now, I just need to know your age. When's your birthday, Harry?" Harry was so excited he couldn't speak. "Sorry!" he said.

"I've forgotten!"
