

Under no circumstances		I was well prepared for the meeting.
After meeting the new Financial Director,		she was happy to take the job in Australia.
Faced with high inflation and bureaucracy, we		we finally found the ideal candidate.
At no time has it ever been suggested that		but also increased the average price.
Given the difficulties in the market,		we have not had a bad year all in all.
Knowing how much		we expected to work, I think we need to pay our staff more.
Not only di we increase the volume of sales,		I can see why people are intimidated by her.
Having read up on the subject,		we could get a lower price.
Having interviewed six different people,		decided to close our operation in that country.
Being used to working in different countries,		would I consider working abroad.
