Job fairs

Although a certain percentage of graduates will still be (1) (employ) six months after leaving university, the majority will have found (2) (employ) by then. Many of these will even have been offered a job while at university, as a result of visiting a job fair.

Job fairs are held at many universities each year. Companies come along to advertise jobs, which are usually in (3) (manage), and the career structures and benefit packages that go with them. Job fairs are an (4) (effect) way for undergraduates to find out what kind of job they might be interested in.

If you go to a job fair, dress (5) (profession). Don't wear jeans and a T-shirt. Wear a suit! You don't want to look (6) (responsible) when you have your first (7) (meet) with your potential (8) (employ). If you're interested in a job on offer, you may have to fill out an (9) (apply) form, so it's (10) (help) to take along relevant information with you. You'll also need proof of all your (11) (qualify), so don't forget to take photocopies of all your certificates with you.
