

DON'T EAT THE BIRD

Read the story and complete the sentences. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

Diana's uncle and aunt came to her house last week. They gave her a beautiful parrot. It was blue and yellow. Diana was very happy with her new pet. She called him "Past". Diana's aunt told her "Parrots eat fruit". Her uncle said "Parrots can talk. You have to teach Pasta some words, Diana.

1. _____ Diana's uncle and aunt went to see her.
2. They brought Diana a beautiful _____ as a present.
3. The colors of the parrot were _____ and _____.
4. Diana gave her parrot the name _____.

First, Diana taught the parrot to say "Pasta" and "Hello". Then he learned to say "Diana", "Yes", "No" and "Lunch"! Then Pasta learned more words. On Saturday, Diana's mother opened the living room window and asked Diana and her younger brother, Fred, "What do you want to eat for lunch?" Fred shouted "Pasta!" The parrot was there with them and he thought, "Oh no! Fred wants to eat me," and he flew outside.

5. The first two words that Past learned were " _____ " and " _____ ".
6. Fred, who was Diana's _____ wanted to eat pasta for lunch.
7. Pasta was afraid and _____ out the window.

Diana and Fred ran out to the garden, but they couldn't see Pasta. Then their mother shouted, "Oh! He's here in the kitchen."

The children went to see. Pasta had a grape in his mouth and then he gave it to Diana's mother. She laughed and said, "I know you want to tell us something. Is it, please eat fruit and not Pasta?" The parrot jumped up and down, "Yes, yes," he said.

8. The children couldn't find the parrot in the _____.
9. Their mother found Pasta in the _____.
10. When Pasta said " _____ " he jumped up and down.

