David Meets a Famous Footballer

David doesn't like school lesson very much. He loves sport and art but he thinks English and maths are very difficult. His father always told him 'You must study hard at school. Subjects like maths and English are very important'. But David didn't believe him.

One day, David was reading his town's newspaper when he saw something very interesting. He went to find his father. "Dad, look at this! Some famous footballers are going to come here to play. It's very exciting! Can you watch the game?'. His father was very excited too and phoned to sports centre to buy some tickets, but there weren't any. Everyone wanted to be there and lots of people already had their tickets. David was very sad.

The next day David was at school when his teacher said, "One of the English footballer is going to visit you all tomorrow. You can ask him questions. Perhaps he'll play football with you, too". The footballer was called Robert. He brought red and white T-shirts for all the children which was very kind. But David couldn't ask him any questions because he didn't know the English words. But he was great to meet him and David was very happy when Robert kicked a ball to him. David studies harder his English lessons now.
