

1. READ ALOUD OR RECITE THE POEM.

YOU SHOULD RECORD YOUR PERFORMANCE IN A VIDEO AND SHOW IT TO YOUR CLASSMATES.

In our attic

I went up in our attic, But then I started screaming.
climbing every creaking stair, It echoed through the house.
and looked for hidden treasure Instead of finding golden coins that I knew was waiting there. I found a little mouse.

Clive Webster

Here you have some tips to consider:

- Relax.
- Speak loudly and clearly.
- Be expressive.
- Slow down.

- Use appropriate pronunciation.
- Use appropriate intonation.
- Use the right tone of voice.

2. NOW, REWRITE THE POEM. SUBSTITUTE THE UNDERLINED TEXT USING EIGHT ITEMS FROM THE FOLLOWING LIST. Search in a dictionary the words that you don't know.

creature - bee - sleeping - hairy trolls - dancing - tree
- shouting - tree house - tree house - bat - hiding

I went up in our climbing every creaking stair,

and looked for hidden

that I knew was there.

But then I started

It echoed through the

Instead of finding

I found a little