A Walk in The Mountains

Hello, I am Ben and I live in a busy city with my family. On last Sunday, dad drove me and my big sister Helen to the mountains. We stopped near a village, and put on our gloves and scarves because the weather there was very cold. Helen put her favorite doll in her coat pocket, and we started to walk.

At midday, we found a lovely, sunny place for lunch. We had sandwiches and lemonade and we looked at beautiful hills. After that we walk into a dark forest. Where we could hear birds that were singing all kinds of different tunes. I could also hear some water near by, but it sounded much noisier than a river.

When we come out, we were at the top of the mountain. There were a waterfall and some high rocks bellow it. There was a deep stream too. I was so excited to walk more but dad told me to stop because it was dangerous.

We started to walk down when the weather got colder and some black clouds come over the mountain. We went back through the forest and then Hellen said, "I've lost my doll! We must go and find it!". "No!" dad told her. "We must get back to the car quickly." Helen cried, but we had to go.
