

Clauses of purpose and result

1 Rewrite the sentences using the word(s) in brackets.

1. She wore oven mitts. She didn't want to burn her hands. (so as not to)

.....

2. She set her alarm clock. She feared she might oversleep. (so that)

.....

3. Call me. You may be late. (in case)

.....

4. She put on sun cream. She didn't want to get sunburnt. (avoid)

.....

5. He wrote down his PIN number. He didn't want to forget it. (in order to)

.....

6. We use an axe to chop wood. (for)

.....

2. Fill in so, such or such a/an.

1. He studied little for the exam that he failed it.

2. There was thick fog that all flights were cancelled.

3. Professor Swanson is interesting a lecturer that everyone wants to attend his classes.

4. It was well-written book that it reached number one on the best seller list.

5. John drank much coffee in the afternoon that he couldn't sleep at night.

6. There was amusing film on TV last night that I stayed up until 2 am.

7. The restaurant had few customers that evening that it closed early.

8. I have a lot of reports to write that I'll be working all weekend.

9. The knife was sharp that I cut myself.

10. It was hot that I turned on the air conditioner.