Emma's dad was a pilot but he wanted to be an astronaut

Emma loved listening to her father's funny stories about amazing planets and the strange (1) that lived there.

One night, Emma couldn't sleep. She looked at all the stars through her bedroom window. 'There are (2) of them,' she thought.

'I really want to travel in space and meet an alien! One day, perhaps.'

Then (3) some lights appeared in the sky.

The lights came nearer and nearer. 'It's a spaceship!' Emma whispered.

'Wooooow, it's in my garden now!' Emma ran outside but it was

(4) and difficult to see very well. Something with a huge helmet on its head was opening a door and waving to her. Emma began to laugh. She could see her father's face! 'Hello Emma,' he said.

'Do you like my (5) new helicopter? Come for a ride in it! We might see a spaceship!'

Task 4.

Snowboarding lesson

Before Sophia and Robert had their first snowboarding lesson, Sophia was feeling very worried. She didn't want to fall over in the snow and be the worst in the class. And she didn't want Robert to laugh at her. Her brother was clever and did everything better than she did.

There were ten children in the snowboarding class and their teacher's name was David. Sophia liked him because he was young and very kind. They started their lesson on a small hill, which was fine, but then David took them on the lift to the top of the mountain. All the other children followed David down the mountain but Sophia couldn't. She was too frightened. The class disappeared and Sophia was alone.

But then David came to find her. 'The others are waiting for you at the bottom,' he said. 'Come on. Be brave. I'll help you.' They went very slowly at first. Then they went a bit faster. 'You see,' said David, 'You can do it!' When she arrived at the bottom of the mountain, everyone clapped. Sophia didn't fall over once, so she felt really pleased.

'Well done!' said David. 'You didn't fall over once!'

'Wow,' said Robert. 'You looked really cool.'

'Come on. Let's have a snowboarding race,' said Sophia after their lesson. 'I can go as fast as you now!'
