

On Screen

C2

ON SCREEN C2 MODULE 3 Pages 44 & 45 VOCAB

NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATION.

• Ex. 3 C DRAG AND DROP THESE WORDS TO MAKE CORRECT SENTENCES.

cheer

wincing

assert grimacing

twitches

vent clarify

shrug

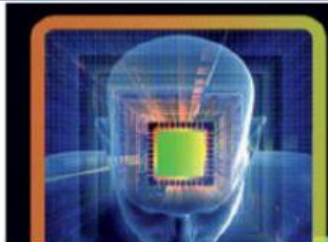

retort

snort

- ① If someone is truly impolite to me, I come up with a way to at the time.
- ② I feel better when I can my anger by if someone cuts in front of a queue.
- ③ He stood up straight in an attempt to his authority.
- ④ If I think someone might have misunderstood me, I try to what I said.
- ⑤ If my favourite football team scores a goal, I usually shout and stamp my feet to
- ⑥ I in pain when I hit my elbow on the chair.
- ⑦ When I don't know the answer to a question, I sometimes my shoulders.
- ⑧ If I am trying hard not to laugh, the corner of my mouth normally
- ⑨ Sometimes when I am laughing, I accidentally. It sounds ridiculous.
- ⑩ I can't help when I think about going to the dentist.

• Ex. 6 COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING SIMILES.

- ① My cousin is as bright She's only five and she already loves to read.
- ② Don't underestimate Anne. She seems small and weak, but when she plays sports, she's as tough
- ③ Neil walked downstairs to hotel reception as bold and demanded a room with a better view.
- ④ David can become as stubborn when he wants something.

On Screen

C2

ON SCREEN C2 MODULE 3 Pages 44 & 45 VOCAB

• Ex. 7 IDIOMS: EXPRESSING YOURSELF.

- ① Please don't..... your, just tell me the truth straight out.
- ② The reviews I read didn't exactly a of that restaurant. Let's go somewhere else.
- ③ The people waiting in the queue made about the weather.
- ④ When she heard that she had won the award, she was at a for
- ⑤ Whenever my Gran Father starts telling stories, everyone in the room is enthralled. He's really got the of
- ⑥ Come on, the Who got chocolate all over my keyboard?
- ⑦ Despite our distance from the stage, the actor's words were as as
- ⑧ Tom keeps hurting people's feelings. He needs to learn to his

Ex. 9 PROVIDE A PHRASAL VERB THAT MATCHES THE MEANINGS BETWEEN BRACKETS.

- ① The feeling that most strongly in her photography is a deep sense of disorientation. (clearly expressed)
- ② Although his parents initially disagreed with his choice of university, they when they saw how he was thriving there. (change so's mind)
- ③ The meeting was boring because the speaker for hours about the same topic. (talk for a long time)
- ④ I'm sorry, that wrong. I didn't mean to imply that it was your fault. (said in a certain way)
- ⑤ Would you mind a bit more detail regarding the sources of this information? (discuss in detail)
- ⑥ Though he was sure he was right, the committee's vote him. (disagree)

