

Tom's blog

Today my blog is about my favourite things.

My favourite shoes at the moment are a pair of flip-flops. They are from the new shoe shop in our town. My brother, Max, and I have the same pair, but mine are blue and his are red.

My favourite food is chocolate. There are three sweet shops near here and they all sell nice boxes of chocolates. My favourite is Mr Treats Sweet Shop because theirs are really delicious. My mum always buys me a big box on my birthday!

My favourite toys are dinosaur figures. Max and I collect them. We've got about 40! Our cousin, Lizzy, collects different animal figures. Hers are nice, but ours are cool!

My favourite game is Pictionary. It's a board game. I like playing it with my family. One person draws pictures and the other people say the word. My mum's pictures are really good, but mine are usually bad. It's a lot of fun to play.
