

Indefinite pronouns

Ketchup spilled everywhere .	I was in a restaurant somewhere .
Everyone was mad at me.	You've never seen anything like it!
I knocked something off my plate.	She said nothing .

3  Now go to page 140. Look at the grammar chart and do the grammar exercise for 12.1.

2 PAIR WORK Complete the sentences with indefinite pronouns.

Check your accuracy. Then say if the sentences are true for you or if you agree.

- 1 I didn't have _____ for breakfast this morning.
- 2 _____ once borrowed my headphones and damaged them.
- 3 _____ ever leaves their windows open at night here.
It's too cold.
- 4 I spilled _____ on my clothes earlier today.
- 5 _____ has accidents, but they shouldn't feel bad about them.
- 6 I once lost my keys. They fell out of my pocket _____.

ACCURACY CHECK

Be careful with the spelling of no one. It is not one word like the other indefinite pronouns.

Noone saw me spill my drink. X

No one saw me spill my drink. **✓

 LIVEWORKSHEETS