

In the following questions each sentence has four underlined words or phrases in italics. The four underlined parts of the sentence are marked (1),(2),(3), and (4). Identify the one underlined word or phrase that must be changed in order for the sentence to be correct.

1. The family of Mary is (1) good readers (2) and usually (3) read much (4) every evening before going to bed.
2. All they (1) played really well (2) and the parents watched (3) them with great interest (4)
3. The dog was too big (1) for (2) the girls not to be (3) afraid it. (4)
4. The girls got nervous (1) when it came to the time to begin the party. George was absent and everything depended on (2) his come (3) in time. (4)
5. The newspapers said (1) that (2) the man jumped (3) off the bridge (4) the night before.
6. The rest of (1) the stockholders will receive ones (2) reports in the mail (3) along with (4) a copy of today's proceedings.
7. Not one (1) in one hundred children exposed to the disease are (2) likely to (3) develop symptoms of it (4).
8. He took (1) the letter and saw (2) that it was written (3) by (4) pencil.
9. The examination will test (1) your ability to (2) understand spoken English, to read non-technical language, and writing (3) correctly. (4)
10. Insulin, it is (1) used to treat (2) diabetes and is secured (3) chiefly from the pancreas (4) of cattle and hogs.

