Exercise 5

Here are some more things a writer may do. Match the descriptions with the functions.

provide precise, factual information	say why something is right or why something should exist	write about something, but not in a detailed way	write about a few things which are typical of something

1. give details
2. give examples
3. mention or make reference to something
4. justify something

LIVEWORKSHEETS