

Exercise 8

Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. That was the best holiday I've already/ever/never had.
2. Have you checked out of the hotel just/since/yet, or do you still need to?
3. It's been raining for/long/since two weeks. It started on the first day of our holiday, and it's been raining ever since.
4. There's been an accident on the motorway for/so/yet now there's a terrible traffic jam.
5. I'm afraid you're too late. The train's already/ever/yet departed. You'll have to get the next one.
6. We've ever/just/yet been on a guided tour of the city. It finished a few minutes ago.
7. How already/long/since have you been working as a tour guide?
8. We're absolutely exhausted because/just/so we've been travelling for over 24 hours.
9. We've been coming to this town for our holidays because/long/since we were children, and we still love it.
10. I've been using the buses and trams in this city for years and I've yet /ever/never had my ticket checked by a ticket inspector.