My dad often has to work away from home. Last year, he had to catch a plane to another country and stay in a hotel for a few days. I felt sad about that. When Dad arrived, he phoned us from the hotel. "It's been difficult," he said. "There was a bad (1) and the plane had to wait so we arrived very late. I'm tired and now I can't find my small black bag." "It's here, at home," said Mum. "You left it in the (2) that took you to the airport. The driver brought it back to me this afternoon." "Oh no! There are some important (3) in it that I must have for a meeting. Can you bring the bag to me tomorrow?" he asked.

Mum (4) quickly. "OK!" she said.

Very early the next day, we caught a plane, too. It was great!

We (5) Dad, stayed with him in the hotel for two days, and then we all flew home together
