

SECOND CONDITIONAL (IF CLAUSE)

IF + PAST SIMPLE + CONDITIONAL (would/wouldn't + infinitive)

A. Choose the correct option:

1. We use the second conditional to talk about real situations/unreal situations (true or possible / not true or not possible) and situations that will/won't probably happen.
2. We form the second conditional by using the verbs in the present simple/past simple + conditional/future.

B. Correct the sentences. Follow the exemple:

Ex.: You felt better if you would eat less junk food./You would feel better if you ate less junk food.

1. Teens were happy if they never would have any homework.

2. If I wouldn't be so sleepy in the morning, I enjoyed gym more.

3. If teens wouldn't feel stressed, they didn't skip meals.

4. Most teens felt better if they would have a doctor to talk to.

5. If I would be you, I told my parents about that problem.
