

The dialog above to answer question number 4-6!

- Aira : Hey Bim! No littering here!
- Bima : But I couldn't find any trash can.
- Aira : That doesn't justify you littering.
- Bima : I wouldn't have littered if there is a trash can nearby, really.
- Aira : Well, littering is still not an option. You can always put your garbage in your or bag until you find a trash can.
- Bima : Do you do it?
- Aira : Yes, I do. I carry my garbage around until I find a trash can. Here are the proofs if you don't believe. See? These are candy wrappers. I put them in my pockets. Do I need I show you the garbage inside my bag as well?
- Bima : No need, please. I see your point. Actually, that is good idea. I will do it too, I promise.
- Aira : Thank you. I hope you keep your promise.
- Bima : I'll try my best.

- Jane : Excuse me. Hello is anybody here?
- Bill : Hello, who is there?
- Jane : Hi Bill, it's me Jane.
- Bill : Hi Jane. Sorry we are cleaning the house.
- Jane : Am I bothering you?
- Bill : No, you are not. Come in.
- Jane : What are you cleaning anyway Bill?

Bill : We are doing general cleaning. We share the responsibility. I am cleaning the window. My sister is sweeping the floor, my brother is mopping the floor, my dad is washing the car, and my mom is cooking for us. It is fair, isn't it?

Jane : It's fair enough. Anyway Bill, I want to tell you about the latest task from Mr. Johnson. Have you received it through email?

Bill : No, I haven't received it yet. Ok will check it soon. Thank you, Jane.
