

2

Worlds Apart

TOPIC VOCABULARY

1. Choose the correct option:

1. The story was difficult and had to be _ for younger children.

exchanged

adapted

2. Despite the traffic, we arrived at the meeting _.

on time

dressed well

3. I felt _ when I saw Natalie as we hadn't spoken to each other for years.

disapproving

awkward

4. When my friend and I met each other after a long time, we _.

shook hands

hugged

5. The cold food looked _, so I didn't even taste it.

unappetising

uncomfortable

2. Choose the correct answer:

1. What is a common eating habit?

adding salt to food before tasting it talking on a phone while eating

2. Which is NOT an example of good etiquette?

thanking someone

laughing at someone

3. What would a hospitable person do?

welcome you into their home

take care of you when you are ill

4. What is customary behaviour in most classes?

raising your hand

sending text messages

5. Which would you usually eat raw?

a carrot

an egg

3. Do you know how to behave on the table? Complete the tips on a website for teens etiquette. Use the words below. Drag the answers.

disgusting

hostess

good manners

leaning forward

stare

personal space

1. Don't talk with food in your mouth. It's not , and other people can't understand what you're saying.
2. Avoid slurping your soup – it makes a noise.
3. Don't at anyone – even if they have bad table manners. It's rude.
4. Instead of to reach for something, ask for it to be passed to you. It's wrong to invade someone's !
5. Don't insult your by telling her the food isn't tasty – just eat it without saying a word.

4. Match 1 to 6 with a) to f) to make true sentences. Drag the numbers to where it corresponds.

1

As a greeting, Inuit people put their noses together,

2

The participants greeted each other

3

We visited Korea last year

4

When you present your project orally,

5

In Japan you mustn't blow your nose in public,

6

Sometimes, shy people find it difficult

a. with a handshake.

b. because that isn't polite.

c. it's important to get to the point.

d. and were surprised by the cultural gap.

e. but they don't kiss.

f. to make eye contact.