

Exercise 6

Read the information. Then complete the table with the verbs in the box.

In English, some verbs are followed by a gerund or infinitive. For example:

He considered moving to the UK after he completed his studies in Germany.

She decided to do an internship in Sweden.

The verb consider is followed by a gerund. The verb decide is followed by an infinitive.

Some verbs are followed by an object and then an infinitive:

He persuaded me to buy a new computer.

It is important to learn the correct form as this will affect your Grammatical Range and Accuracy mark in the IELTS test.

|         |           |        |                 |         |        |      |
|---------|-----------|--------|-----------------|---------|--------|------|
| Neglect | proceed   | risk   | approve of      | propose | recall | deny |
|         |           |        | instruct        | urge    |        |      |
|         | Insist on | forbid | discourage from |         |        |      |

| verb + infinitive | verb + object + infinitive |
|-------------------|----------------------------|
|                   |                            |
|                   |                            |
|                   |                            |

| verb + gerund | verb + preposition + gerund |
|---------------|-----------------------------|
|               |                             |
|               |                             |
|               |                             |