

Prepositions of time -at,in,on

Choose the missing words (at,on,on):

1

Kate: Hello! Are you free tomorrow morning?

Diana: Sorry, I have an exam tomorrow afternoon, so I have to study  the morning. But I am free  the evening.

Kate: That's great! Would you like to go to the cinema?

Diana: Sure, I finish my exam  3 pm.

Kate: There is "Spiderman"  5 pm and "Zootopia"  5:30.

Diana: Sounds great! Let's watch "Spiderman".

2

Tom: I feel really tired I am so busy these days.

Dave: How come?

Tom: First, I wake up  6:30  the morning and finish work almost  9 pm.

Dave: That's really a lot. Why are you working so much?

Tom: I have a very important project and I have to present it  May.

Dave: Are you going  holidays then?

Tom: Maybe I will go on holidays  summer.

Dave: We have a holiday  May 28. Do you work that day?

Tom: I don't know yet. Our company will inform us  two days.

3

Jane: We have holidays soon? What are you going to do?

Sam:  Monday I am going to visit my grandparents.

Jane: I have seen a weather forecast, It is going to snow a lot  Tuesday. Will you take your skiis?

Sam: I don't know yet. We are going to celebrate grandma's birthday  January 21, then  Friday morning I have to help grandfather to cut woods and only later  the evening I maybe go skiing.

Jane: You will have a lot of time other days. And it's so cozy to sit near the fireplace  winter.

Sam: Yes, that's why I like to spent my holidays at my granparents.

4

An assistant: Hello, this is doctor Smith's dental clinic. How can I help you?

Mr Barton: This is Mr Barton. I'd like to make an appointment.

An Assistant: Sure. How about  Wednesday  11 am?

Mr Barton: I am busy  Wednesday morning? How about other day?

An assistant: The doctor also has time  Friday afternoon  1 pm?

Mr Barton: 1 pm  Friday suits me very well.

An assistant: Very good Mr Barton. See you  Friday.