

Family Problems

Problem	Solution
One morning your family member has found a baby in a cradle on your front doorstep. What would you do?
You have got a new job in another country. Your husband doesn't want to move, but this is a good opportunity for YOU. You have a daughter of 8 years. What would you do?
Your daughter is 18 years old. she wants to join the army, because she wants to protect the country. Discuss the situation with your child.
Your son has got a chance to move to another country for a permanent residence. He doesn't have money and doesn't speak the language of that country. He needs your advice.
Your daughter has found a great job abroad and she is supposed to travel the whole year to countries all over the world. But this means that she can't finish her university, can't get married, can't live in with you, etc. She is only 19. Talk to her and decide what to do...
Your daughter, who is 18 years old, tells you that her boyfriend, whom she has been dating for 2 weeks, has asked her to marry him. She loves him and asks you for an advice ...	