

Famous Fairytales

Recognize a famous fairytale by the short description:

Cinderella

Rapunzel

Jack and the Bean Stalk

The princess and the Pea

The little Mermaid

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Puss in Boots

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs

Beauty and the Beast

Pinocchio

A little mermaid lives in her underwater kingdom and wants to see the surface. She falls in love with a prince and makes a deal with the sea witch that sells her a magical potion.

A stormy night a young woman enters the house and says she's a real princess. To check that a prince's mother puts her in a bed covered by 20 mattresses with a pea under.

The girl with a long blond hair lives in the tower that has no doors. The only way to enter the tower is to climb it.

The girl who lives with her step-mother and two step-sister gets the chance to come to a ball. Her fairy god-mother helps her but warns to return before midnight.

A poor country boy trades a family cow for a handful of magic beans, which grow into a massive beanstalk.

A wealthy merchant takes a rose from the enchanted castle. But he has to pay a terrible price since one of his daughters must stay in this castle.

A wooden marionette, who wants to become a real human, goes through a series of misadventures and eventually gains wisdom and gets his wish.

The young girl walked in the forest and found a little house there. She entered the house, ate the porridge there and finally fell asleep in one of the beds.

An envious of her step-daughter's beauty step-mother sends her into the woods. After wondering through the forest the girl finds there a tiny cottage.

The youngest son has got an inheritance – a cat. But the cat helps him to get a hand of the princess and becomes a lord himself.