PART 3: READING

Hi, my name is Lisa, I'm eleven. I'm from the UK. I live in London with my father, my mother and my grandmother.

My grandmother lived in Ireland, in a small village, when she was a girl. She didn't visit the city because her parents didn't have a car and there were no trains or buses.

I take the bus to school but she walked 5 km to go to school.

My grandmother helped her mother in the house, she didn't have radiators or hot water in the bathroom. I have hot shower every day.

In her free time she liked to read books . In my free time I like reading too but I also like playing computer games.
