One night, Mbok Sirni dreamed, to make her daughter survive the giant, she should meet the Hermit in Bald Mount. In the morning, she went there. In the bald mount, she met a hermit who gave her 4 pieces of small packages, those are cucumber seeds, needles, salt, and shrimp paste. After getting home, Mbok Sirni gave all of the packages to Timun Mas and pray for her protection.

The next morning, the giant came again to claim the promise. Timun Mas was told to get out through the back door by Mbok Sirni. The giant chase Timun Mas. Timun Mas remembered the package, then spread cucumber seeds. Miraculously, the forest became a dense fruit cucumber field. The giant ate all cucumber but it actually adds to the giant power. Then, Timun Mas sprinkled a gold needle, and in a flash, it grew up to be bamboo trees that are very high and sharp. With a bloody foot, the giant continued to pursue her. Timun Mas unwrapped the salt and poured it out. Instantly, the forest changed into a vast ocean. With the big power, the giant can pass. Lastly, Timun Mas sprinkle shrimp paste, then it immediately formed into a boiling mud of sea which made the giant drowned and burned to death.

After two weeks, Mbok Sirni saw there was a large cucumber which is sparkling like gold. Then, Mbok Sirni split it carefully. How pleased she was when she found out that there was a beautiful baby in the cucumber, she named her Timun Mas. After several years, Timun mas grew into a lovely girl. One day, the giant came to claim the promise from Mbok Sirni. Mbok Sirni was very afraid of losing Timun Mas. She asked the giant to come back 2 years later, as Timun Mas will be more mature and more delicious to eat, and the giant agreed. Mbok Sirni increasingly loved Timun Mas, but whenever she remembered her promise, she became anxious and sad.

Finally, Timun Mas and Mbok Sirni lived happily ever after.

Once upon a time, there was an old widow named Mbok Sirni who lived by herself and wants a child to accompany her during her old times. One day, she was visited by a giant who want to give a child with the condition that when the child was six years old, she must be submitted back to the giant. The giant would eat the child and Mbok Sirni agreed. Then, the giant gave cucumber seeds that should be planted and cared for.
