

The Time Machine

Task 1. Read and listen the biography about H.G Wells.

H.G. Wells (21st September 1866 - 13th August 1946) was born in Kent, England. He left school when he was 14, but later he won a scholarship to the Royal College of Science in London. He became a science teacher and he cared very much about the future of our planet. Wells wrote some of the most famous science-fiction books of all time, including The Time Machine, a story about a man who travels into the future. There he meets the child-like Eloi, makes friends with Weena and the wild Morlocks. His travels make him think how easily we can destroy our world if we are not careful.
