

Who 's or whose?

homophones

Whose : to ask about possession

example: « Whose dog is it? --> It 's my cousin's dog.»

Who 's 1. = who is example: Who 's ready for breakfast ? = Who is ready for breakfast ?

or 2. = who has (+ got) examples: Who 's got my bag? -> It's Lucy, she 's got / she has got your bag.

Who 's got blue eyes in your family ? -> My sister has.

EXERCISE: choose the correct form, whose or who's.

..... schoolbag is it ? -> It's my schoolbag.

..... funny in your family ? -> My Dad. He's very funny.

..... glasses are they ? -> They're Peter's glasses

..... hungry now? Who wants to go to the fastfood?

..... got Tom 's schoolbag ? -> I think Ann has got Tom's schoolbag

..... jacket is this ? -> This jacket belongs to Christopher.

..... identity card is this? -> It's my sister's card.

..... this boy on the photo? -> It's my cousin Ian.

..... thirteen today? -> Jenny is. It's her birthday today.

..... birthday is it today? -> It's Jenny's birthday today.

..... absent today ? -> Nobody is absent today Miss.

..... got a twin brother or twin sister in the class ? -> Nobody has.