

APPLYING WORDS IN SENTENCES

Fill in the following sentences with the correct vocabulary word. Vocabulary words will only be used once.

Word Bank:

defer	nap	cascades	generation	tendon
drape	pledge	fallow	intensify	intention
fester	speckles	intrigue	tension	intense

Even though I would rather be playing video games, I can't _____ studying for my vocabulary test because it's tomorrow morning.

With _____ focus, the detective was able to solve the cold case mystery in a matter of days.

Jason has a routine when he gets home every day; he _____ his jacket on the back of a chair, changes out of his school uniform, and gets comfortable on the couch with a snack.

When Ryan made a joke about people who wear glasses, it was not his _____ to hurt anybody's feelings but it turns out he did.

What started off as a small cut on my finger has begun to _____ and become infected, all because I didn't wash my hands right away and use a bandage.

After seeing a doctor, I learned that the sharp pain in my knee during practice yesterday was because of an injured _____.

A waterfall _____ down the cliff from the hills behind.

The rubber band is stretched so long, it might snap because of the _____.

The hill fields are left _____ for ten years after two years' harvesting.

A blackbird's egg is blue with brown _____ on it.

Wedding rings symbolize a _____ of marriage to another person.

With the winds becoming faster and the clouds getting darker, it looks like the storm will _____ and we should look for shelter.

This _____ of young people understand the importance of making meaningful changes that tackles problems caused by climate change.

There is some _____ going on around the new teacher because she just started teaching and nobody knows very much about her.

Velvet, moleskin and felt are examples of fabric with _____ on them.