

Guess the words, first letters are given.

1. A binding whose cover is glued to the spine. P _____
2. Bindings are divided into complex, simple and _____. S _____
3. A saddle-stitch binding has a ____ cover. S _____
4. A binding consists of a cover and a _____. F _____
5. A fillet is made of a paper _____. S _____
6. A complex binding has a ____ cover. H _____
7. A binding made from one type of material is called _____. H _____
8. A saddle-stitch binding is the one where the cover is attached to the fillet with the _____. S _____

Wybierz właściwą odpowiedź

The basic element of a knife folding machine is a buckle / blade.

Folding sheets perpendicularly on the ribbon is performed on the rotational folding / buckle folding machine.

One of the most popular fillet formats is an album / simple format.

In final result of the folding process is a sheet / fillet.

There are funnel / tunnel folding machines among others.

A paper ribbon is cut off with a funnel / cassette.

Folding machines are used for folding / cutting paper sheets.

In knife folding machines the crucial element is a sharp / blunt knife.

Wybierz właściwą odpowiedź

1. The proper _____ should be set at each stage of the production.
2. Binding assembly line has _____ functional range than a folding or cutting machine.
3. Filler pressing machines' pressure needs to be adjusted depending on the _____ of the fillers.
4. Stitching gauze, headband, and paper band are the materials put on the book _____.
5. Binding is made by combining _____.
6. A headband is _____ the adhesive.
7. The operation sheet provides you with the information about the _____ of the machine.

8. Grooving guarantees that the book will be _____.

Zaznacz zdania jako prawdziwe (T) lub fałszywe (F)

1. Single paper fillets stitched with a wire create a saddle-stitch binding.
True False
2. Books bound with trimmings are very commonly produced.
True False
3. Complex bindings comprise corner bindings.
True False
4. Complex bindings have poor robustness.
True False
5. Complex bindings are adjusted to different kinds of covers.
True False
6. Special bindings are used almost always exclusively for notebooks printing.
True False
7. The most recommended way of conjoining sets of fillets into the filler is sewing them with threads.
True False
8. For perfect and covering bindings, the most recommended way of conjoining sets of fillets or paper sheets into the filler is gluing and cutting.
True False

Wybierz właściwą odpowiedź

Which of the following is not a type of a folding machine?

simple buckle knife

A binding consists of a filler and endpapers.
a spine, a cover and endpapers.
a cover and a filler.

A fold is
a spine of the cover.
deliberate paper bending.
an element of a buckle folding machine.

A saddle-stitch binding is one of the combined bindings. complex bindings. simple bindings.

The main element of a buckle folding machine is a knife. a supporting bar. a cassette.

The third leaflet from the left is album.

narrow.

square.

Which element is not a part of the buckle folding machine?

a roller.

a cassette.

a knife.

A binding made of one kind of material is homogeneous.

complex.

perfect.

Dopasuj podpisy do obrazków

knife folding machine

buckle folding machine

funnel folding machine

rotational folding machine

square and album leaflets

parallel splitting of double fold

