The holiday of your dreams!

A representative of the travel company will meet you at the airport and take you to your hotel. The Hotel Malibu is a four-star hotel. It opened only last year. It has a fabulous swimming pool and restaurant, as well as a bar and disco. There will be a special programme of entertainment this summer and we have organised activities for younger visitors too.

Book now! We are offering you the holiday of your dreams!

We are writing to complain about the holiday we booked at your travel agency. First of all, you told us that a representative (0) would meet us at the airport, but nobody was there. You said that the hotel (1) ..... a four-star hotel, but it only has two stars. You told us that the hotel (2) ..... last year, but it is at least ten years old. The advertisement said the hotel (3) ..... a fabulous pool, but there was no water in it. It said there (4) ..... a special programme of entertainment, but we saw the same show every night. The advertisement also said the hotel (5) ..... activities for young people, but they only did so at weekends. You told us you (6) ..... us the holiday of our dreams, but in fact it was a very great disappointment!
