PART 4 Reading Comprehension (15 questions)

Read the passage and choose the best answer to each of the following questions. (5 questions)

The popular two-week Boryeong Mud Festival in Korea brings in millions of dollars but has a very humble beginning. Starting in 1999, the festival aimed at promoting the local cosmetics that were made from the local mud, which was believed to bring a lot of benefits for the skin. But soon, the excitement of the beach mud party took over. Now, every July, thousands of tourists flock to the small town of Boryeong on the west coast of the country to join in a wide range of mud activities. Mud wrestling, mud sliding, mud swimming and so on make up the most famous Korean festival. Generally, the festivities begin early in the morning. Buses will pick up tourists at the designated places and drop them off at the beach, which has already been filled with mud. There are also fireworks displays and live performances at the festival's opening and closing ceremonies. Admission fees for adults are 10,000 wons for weekdays and 12,000 wons on the weekend.

26. What can be inferred from the passage?

A. The admission fee on the weekends is double that on weekdays.      B. To get to the Festival, there are many transportation options.

C. There are other activities besides mud-based ones at the Mud Festival.      D. Tourists help fill the beach with mud.

27. Why was the festival first started?

A. to advertise for the local cosmetics      B. to make the town more famous
