

POSSESSIVES 'S OR S'

We use 's for singular nouns and names.

the girl's bike Alice's computer

We use s' for plural nouns.

the students' desks the parents' child

1 Choose the correct option.

1. Jim is a doctor. Jim's / Jims' hospital is big.
2. Anna and Max are students. The student's / students' favourite subject is English.
3. My mother's / mothers' name is Maria.
4. Your grandparent's / grandparents' garden is big!
5. This is my brother's / brothers' room. His room is small.
6. They have 2 friends. Their friend's / friends' names are Sarah and Will.

2. Answer the questions.

ex. Whose pencil is it? (my friend) → It's my friend's pencil.

Whose bedroom is it? (our parents) → It's our parents' bedroom.

- 1) Whose car is it? (my father) → It's _____.
- 2) Whose books are they? (students) → They're _____.
- 3) Whose toy is it? (their cat) → It's _____.
- 4) Whose dog is it? (Jack) → It's _____.
- 5) Whose garden is it? (her grandparents) → It's _____.
- 6) Whose dress is it? (Anna) → It's _____.

3. Write 's or ' for possessive.

Jake_____	teacher _____	friend _____
Maria _____	students _____	boys _____
parents_____	Mike _____	girl _____
friends_____	Nina _____	Sam and Kate _____
father_____	grandparents _____	John _____
sisters_____	doctor _____	sisters _____