1. Read about a day in the life of a cop.

Hi! I'm Paul. I'm a policeman. I'm 45 years old. I work at a police station in Cordoba.

Everyday I get up at six o'clock in the morning. I take a shower, brush my teeth and get dressed. Then, I eat breakfast at half past six. At seven o'clock, I take the bus to the police station.

I arrive at the station and put on my hat and jacket and head to the Parade Room ready for the briefing. I do some paperwork and prepare the car for the patrol. We patrol the streets of the area. Then, I return to the station and I update the Police National Computer (PNC) database with information from the incidents and provide the Sergeant with a brief update. At 5 pm I go home.

At home, I have a shower and I have tea with my family. Then, I water the plants and I play basketball with my children. At around 9 we have dinner and at 12pm I usually go to bed.
