

Spain in the 19th century

1. Match each historic event with the correct date

2. True (T) or False (F). If it's false, you have to write the correct word or sentence.

- The Liberals supported Maria Cristina y Fernando VII. _____
- First Carlist War began in 1833. _____
- Fernando VII changed the law, so Isabel could be queen. _____
- There was a French government based in Cadiz. It was headed by Napoleon's brother, Joseph I. _____
- In 1822 the Spanish government approved the Constitution of Cadiz. _____

3. Complete with the correct word in each sentence.

1. On 2 May of _____ there was a revolt in Madrid against the French. This was the beginning of War of _____. The war ended in 1814.
2. Spanish government based in _____. It was represented by _____ (Carlos IV's son).
3. Ideas of the Constitution in Cadiz:
 - The power of the _____ was reduced.
 - Ordinary people could _____ in elections.
 - Government was separated into 3 branches: _____ executive and judicial.
 - The Spanish Inquisition was _____.
4. As a result of the revolution, France became a _____. The law recognised all citizens as _____.
5. In 1807, Manuel Godoy signed the _____ of _____ with Napoleon Bonaparte.
6. _____ abdicated and his son became king Fernando VII.