

Kinds of Pronouns Practice

I. Identify whether the underlined pronoun is demonstrative (D), personal (P), or possessive (PS). Write your answer on the line before the number. (10 points)

- _____ 1. I wonder what that is.
- _____ 2. She makes the best cookies.
- _____ 3. The votes for best baker are hers.
- _____ 4. This is a masterpiece.
- _____ 5. We found a clue on the stairs.
- _____ 6. Winnie and his friends went out. They had fun!
- _____ 7. That is a memorable story.
- _____ 8. The brilliant idea was theirs.
- _____ 9. He is a great dad.
- _____ 10. I finally found it!

II. Identify whether the underlined word is a pronoun (P) or an adjective (ADJ). Write your answer on the line before the number. (10 points)

- _____ 1. His box of letters was returned.
- _____ 2. The letterbox was his.
- _____ 3. Her cup of coffee is getting cold.
- _____ 4. My pens are missing.
- _____ 5. That pen is mine.
- _____ 6. Your jacket is so warm.
- _____ 7. Its paws are so cute.
- _____ 8. The friends set off on their first adventure.
- _____ 9. The warm jacket is yours.
- _____ 10. I grew up in our house.

III. Type up the correct pronoun on the blank. Pay attention especially to the antecedent in the previous sentence. (10 points)

1. Mom and dad are kind parents. _____ take care of me.
2. Anna jogs early in the morning. It is part of _____ routine.
3. I love coffee. _____ keeps me awake.
4. The fireman saved my life! _____ is so brave.
5. My friends and I love playing outside. _____ have so many fun games.
6. The ground is shaking. _____ is making me afraid.
7. Sally saw Betty and waved at _____.
8. I finally talked to Mark. I told _____ about our trip.

9. John found _____ book after 2 weeks.

10. My brother and my sister went to the beach. _____ love to swim.

