

Grammar

1. Read the clues. Write sentences with have/has got.

E.g. I / a computer

I have got a computer.

1 I / a sister

2 She / a bag

3 We / a garden

4 You / a stepmother

5 He / two cousins

6 They / a cat.

4. Read the question. Write the short answer.

E.g. Have you got a scooter?

Yes, I have.

1 Have you got a brother?

2 Has he got long hair?

3 Have they got a car?

4 Have she got blue trousers?

5 Have we got any milk?

6 Has it got a garden?

8. Choose the correct option to complete the text.

Lewis is my brother, and he is / are tall. Sara is my half-sister, and she is / isn't tall, too. I am different to them because I'm / I'm not short. We've got three uncles, two aunts and six cousins, so our family is / are big! I'm / 're sixteen and my cousins are all fifteen to eighteen years old, so we are / aren't similar ages. I love my family and we have fun together!
