

Choose the correct form of the verb in each sentence.

A: So, Enrique, what do you do / are you doing?

E: I'm an architect.

A: Do you work / Are you working alone, or with a team?

E: I run / am running my own office with a partner.

A: Oh, I see. And do you work / are you working long hours?

E: Sometimes, yes. Right now, we're busy, so we work / are working 10-12 hours a day. But it's not always like that.

A: What do you work / are you working on at the moment? Anything interesting?

E: Yes, we design / are designing a sports and leisure centre, and it's very exciting.

A: Do you ever get / Are you ever getting stressed out?

E: Very rarely. I don't work / am not working alone, so we share / are sharing the worry!

Very nice!
