

SUBJECT: HUMANITIES

TEACHER: MARGARITA

GROUP: F1

NAME:

1. Fill in the gaps using these words:

CAN'T RELIGIOUS LATIN CAN MANY HUNDRED NO GOD
PRESIDENT GREEK

- There are _____ countries that have anarchy as their form of government.
- A theocracy is a government that recognizes _____ or a divine being as the ultimate authority. ("Theo" is a _____ word that means god.) In a theocracy, _____ law is used to settle disputes and rule the people.
- A theocracy _____ also be a democracy, dictatorship, monarchy, or just about any other kind of government.

2. Write an example to each type of government (use Google if you're not sure)

SAUDI ARABIA NORTHKOREA BRAZIL DENMARK SWITZERLAND
VATICAN BELGIUM NORWAY THE UK

Monarchy
Dictatorship
Democracy
Theocracy

3. Vocabulary. Write the correct term using vocabulary from the last lesson.

Type of democracy where citizens elect leaders to represent them in government

A small group that rules a country after taking it over by force

One person has all the power

Type of democracy where citizens are involved in day-to-day government

Recognizes God as the ultimate authority in government and law

One leader has absolute control over citizens' lives

Citizens hold the political power

A small group of people has all the power

People are not subject to any nation or government

A king or queen rules the country

4. Identify That Government! Identify the form(s) of government that each country has or had.

Brazil

Brazil is led by a president who is elected by the citizens. Citizens in Brazil elect a new president every four years. Citizens also elect representatives to serve in two different legislative bodies.

Form of government:

You are my
HERO

Switzerland

Citizens elect representatives to sit in two different lawmaking assemblies. But citizens also vote several times a year to decide on laws. Citizens can vote to propose their own laws or undo laws passed by their representatives. All citizens may vote directly on these laws.

Forms of government:

and

