Review Count and Noncount Nouns

Fill in : a, an or the Patient: Is there _____ doctor in _____ clinic?

Nurse: Yes, there is _____ doctor in _____ clinic.

Patient: Can I see him, please?

Nurse: No, I'm sorry. _____ doctor is busy with _____ patient now.

Fill in : "some" or "any"

Tom: Do you have _____ grapes ?

Mr. Tal: No, I don't have _____ grapes, but I do _____ bananas.

Tom: I don't like bananas. Do you have _____ apples ?

Mr. Tal: Yes, there are _____ apples on the shelf.

Tom: I'll take _____ .

Fill in : a, an, the, some or any

1. There is _____ big car in the garage. _____ car is new.

2. There isn't _____ jam in the jar.

3. It's cold. Put on _____ hat.

4. There are _____ pears in the basket. _____ basket is next to the table.

5. I'm hungry. Is there _____ bread left ?

Fill in : much or many

1. You spend too_____money on clothes.

2. I saw_____people in the park yesterday.

3. I don't have_____work at the moment.

4. There is not_____fun in collecting these stamps.

5. There were too_____children at the party.

Fill in : a, an, the, some, any, much or many

Last week my friend and I went to _____ interesting restaurant. People told us we could get good food there without spending too _____ money. They were wrong. First, there was _____ problem with _____ tables.

There were so _____ people in _____ restaurant that the waiter didn't have _____ tables left. Then the waiter didn't bring _____ food on time. _____ of my friends shouted at him.

Fill in many / much / afew / a little

1. We have _____ money! I can't buy anything in this shop.

2. There aren't _____ Western people who can speak Chinese.

3. There is _____ milk for the children to drink it.

4. London has _____ beautiful buildings.

5. He only spent _____ dollars there.

6. _____ friends are coming over tonight.

7. Tom has _____ money left.