Requests with modals, if clauses, and gerunds

a. Complete the request in a more formal way.

1.	Can you look after my house while I'm away on vacation?
	Would you mind my house while I'm away on vacation?
2.	Could I leave my pet snake with you?
	Is it OK if my pet snake with you?
3.	Could you water my plants once a week?
	I was wondering if water my plants once a week.
4.	Can you pay my bills for me?
	I wonder if pay my bills for me.
5.	Could I borrow your car for my trip?
	Do you mind if your car for my trip?

B. Read the requests and complete the conversations.

1.	You want to borrow someone's camera for a trip to Colombia.
	A: Would you mind if your camera? I'm going to Colombia. B: Sure, that's fine. But please be careful with it.
2.	You want to use someone's desk at the office.
	A: Is it OK if your desk? B: Of course. Go right ahead!!
3.	You need help moving on Sunday.
	A: Would you mind on Sunday? B: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm busy this weekend.
4.	You want to borrow someone's portable TV set.
	A: Could you please your portable TV set? B: I'm sorry. I'd like to, but it's not working.

LIVEWORKSHEETS