

Name :

L . K . P . D 1

Class :

fill in the blanks with the appropriate verb.

The Lion and the Mouse

The lion (place) the mouse on the floor, who promptly (ran) away.

Then the lion (decide) to go for a walk because it (be) such a beautiful day. But as he (stroll) down the path, he (get) caught in a net and he (see) he (can't) escape, so he (start) to sweat. He (let) out a mighty roar, "ROOOAAARRR"!! hoping someone (will) help. This (catch) the attention of the mouse, who (see) the lion (trap) all by himself.

The mouse (run) to the lion, and (climb) up the tree. Then (chew) on the rope that (hold) the net, setting the lion free. The mouse then (say) to the lion, "because you (be) kind to me, I have no repaid you."