

Exercise 10

Read the magazine article about a television documentary. Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box.

have been added	is being broadcast	is broadcast was being produced
was opened	were filmed	were relocated
	will be shown	will have been watched

The aim of our new documentary is to bring to life the culture and industries of central England in the nineteenth and early-twentieth centuries. Our documentary is based on an open-air museum located in central England on 26 acres of former industrial land. It _____ to the public in 1978, and since then over 50 shops, houses and other industrial buildings from nearby towns _____. Most buildings _____ from their original sites to form a village in which actors portray life from over 300 years of history, but with a focus on the period 1850–1950. Many different aspects of museum life _____ during the ten-month period in which the documentary _____. In one scene, viewers _____ what it was like to be a pupil in a Victorian reading lesson at the village school, and in another scene the life of a miner underground will be depicted. The first episode _____ this week and ratings are expected to be extremely high. It is estimated that by the time the final episode _____, the series _____ by over 50 million viewers.