

Hypatia of Alexandria.

had dressed loved lived was x2

Greetings "little thinkers" and welcome to the Hall of famous brains. Today on our tour will meet Hypatia of Alexandria.

Hypatia was a philosopher who _____ from 370 to 415 and was from Alexandria, Egypt. She _____ asking questions about minds and bodies, the universe, math and logic, and what a life she lived!

She ____ one of the first female philosophers and mathematicians and was a librarian at the Library of Alexandria. She _____ her own school of philosophy and a crater on the moon named after her and _____ like the male philosophers of her time.

One of her favorite big questions ____ : how do the moon stars and the whole universe work together?

What do you think about this question? See you all next week when we get to know another fascinating famous brain.

1.Where was she from?
She was from _____

2. What did she love asking questions about?
She loved asking questions about _____ and _____, _____, _____ and _____ .

3. What was her job?
She was a _____ and _____ and_____ .

Look for the opposite words in the text:

little:

male:

hated:

past:

Source: https://youtu.be/j4FC7PHov14

LIVEWORKSHEETS