

SCHOOL DAY OF NON VIOLENCE AND PEACE

The "School Day of Non-violence and Peace" is celebrated on 30th January, on the anniversary of the death of Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi was an Indian peaceful activist.

The message this day is: Universal Love, Non-violence and Peace.

The symbol for this day is the peace dove flying with an olive branch in its beak.

In lots of religions as:

Judaism, Christianity and Islam, a white dove is generally a sign for peace.

Here, at school, we celebrate this day with a race for peace. All of the students wear white clothes and run around the school.

Sometimes we also paint murals about peace to decorate the playground.
