In order to do something / That's why

ANNA FARKAS

Name: Date:

A. In order to do something: with the aim or purpose of doing something.

B. That's why: Used after a statement to emphasize the reason or explanation just given, especially in response to a statement or question using the word "why."

1) He came home early _____ see the children before they went to bed.
2) Julie dreads airplanes, _____ she takes the train from Brussels to Paris.
3) We couldn't remember the password, _____ we phoned their Customer Service Team.
4) Peter and Jake got up at 5 a.m. _____ avoid driving in the hot weather.
5) Mary speaks three foreign languages, _____ she has no difficulty in getting a job.
6) I completed the application form as soon as I have received it _____ be able to buy the ticket before they are sold out.
7) Sarah broke up with James, _____ he no longer comes to our gatherings.
8) We should go home first _____ change our clothes.
9) It doesn't rain much in this part of the country _____ we don't produce vegetables here.
10) I arrived at the airport quite early _____ allow sufficient time for check-in in case there are long queues at the check-in desks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS