

City vs Country – Vocabulary

A small house, typically in the country: (noun)

A large building that is divided into apartments: (noun)

When the means of transport and cars are loud: (adjective)

Lots of people and cars in the city: (adjective)

A place where you feel not in safe: (adjective)

When you feel calm and quiet: (adjective)

An environment where the air is not polluted: (adjective)