Decide which of the words below can replace the underlined parts of sentences 1–4. More than one answer is possible.

1

I hate people who gossip. ____

a can't stand
b break up c dislike d look down on

2

We shouldn't gossip in order not to hurt people. ____

a don't have to b mustn't c can't d had better not

3

It's possible that he'll lie. He isn't very reliable. ____

a He must lie.
b He may lie.
c He should lie.

4

Lucy came round last night for a chat about her ex-boyfriend.

a rang me up
b visited me
c got in touch
d came to my place

W zadaniach 1–5 spośród podanych możliwości (A–C) wybierz tę, która najlepiej oddaje sens wyróżnionego fragmentu zdania. Zakreśl jedną z liter: A, B albo C.

1 Why did you break up? Was the reason very serious? ____

A make up B split up C take up

2 Our children aren't allowed to stay up late. ____

A mustn't B aren't able to C shouldn't

3 Did you contact Mike about the party? ____

A keep in touch with B stay in touch with C get in touch with

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Friends shouldn't have secrets. ☐

A keep B say C make

5 Why don't we go out for a meal? ☐

A Have we B Could we C Must we

W zadaniach 1–5 spośród podanych możliwości (A–C) wybierz tę, która najlepiej oddaje sens wyróżnionego fragmentu zdania. Zakreśl jedną z liter: A, B albo C.

1 Perhaps it is just gossip. Don't take it to heart. ☐

A It should be just B It must be just C It may be just

2 Did you have to go to that ceremony? ☐

A Were you able to B Did you need to C Was it possible for you to

3 I fell out with Nina. I can't stand gossips. ☐

A had a meeting
B had a chat
C had an argument

4 Are you like Amanda? You seem so alike! ☐

A Do you get on with B Do you have much in common with C Do you look up to 5 Harry apologised for gossiping about me. ☐

A felt upset about
B spent the whole day
C said sorry for

LIVEWORKSHEETS