

Decide which of the words below can replace the underlined parts of sentences 1–4. More than one answer is possible.

1

I hate people who gossip.

- a can't stand
- b break up
- c dislike
- d look down on

2

We shouldn't gossip in order not to hurt people.

- a don't have to
- b mustn't
- c can't
- d had better not

3

It's possible that he'll lie. He isn't very reliable.

- a He must lie.
- b He may lie.
- c He should lie.

4

Lucy came round last night for a chat about her ex-boyfriend.

- a rang me up
- b visited me
- c got in touch
- d came to my place

W zadaniach 1–5 spośród podanych możliwości (A–C) wybierz tę, która najlepiej oddaje sens wyróżnionego fragmentu zdania. Zakreśl jedną z liter: A, B albo C.

1 Why did you break up? Was the reason very serious?

- A make up
- B split up
- C take up

2 Our children aren't allowed to stay up late.

- A mustn't
- B aren't able to
- C shouldn't

3 Did you contact Mike about the party?

- A keep in touch with
- B stay in touch with
- C get in touch with

4 Friends shouldn't have secrets.
A keep B say C make

5 Why don't we go out for a meal?
A Have we B Could we C Must we

W zadaniach 1–5 spośród podanych możliwości (A–C) wybierz tę, która najlepiej oddaje sens wyróżnionego fragmentu zdania. Zakreśl jedną z liter: A, B albo C.

1 Perhaps it is just gossip. Don't take it to heart.
A It should be just
B It must be just
C It may be just

2 Did you have to go to that ceremony?
A Were you able to
B Did you need to
C Was it possible for you to

3 I fell out with Nina. I can't stand gossips.
A had a meeting
B had a chat
C had an argument

4 Are you like Amanda? You seem so alike!
A Do you get on with
B Do you have much in common with
C Do you look up to 5 Harry apologised for gossiping about me.

A felt upset about
B spent the whole day
C said sorry for