

Science and technology collocations

Complete the sentences with the following words.

cutting-edge

discoveries

breakthroughs

innovation

emerging

experiment

community

developing

SURPRISING TECH

The last century has witnessed major scientific a. , such as new treatments for old diseases. But we still have a long way to go. The next 50 years will bring many medical and scientific b. that will change our lives forever.

The scientific c. at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, for example, is studying the problem of premature babies. By using the latest d. technology, they conducted a scientific e. in which they created an artificial womb that will allow the babies to develop. Isn't that amazing?
Scientific f. is always surprising us with new and fantastic gadgets, and scientists are continuously g. technology that aims to make our lives easier and healthier.