

Exercise 3

In the IELTS Speaking test, you can increase grammatical range (accurately using a range of grammatical structures) by using relative clauses to add further information.

Complete each sentence so that it has the same meaning as the original sentence. Use a relative clause and the words in brackets. The first question has been done for you.

1. It's called the Far East Film Festival (that)

It's a festival that's called the Far East Festival.

2. It's a festival about popular, old Asian movies. (which)

It's a festival _____

3. You can watch Asian movies at the festival. (where)

It's a festival _____

4. The festival takes place at Easter. (that)

It's a festival _____

5. People dress up in traditional Japanese dress. (where)

It's a festival _____

6. You can buy local products at a market. (where)]

It's a festival _____